To Whom it May Concern

I am pleased to provide this recommendation for Mr. Sanish Maharjan, who has completed the internship with dedication and professionalism. During his internship period, Sanish consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic, a positive attitude, and a genuine eagerness to learn.

Throughout his tenure, Sanish actively participated in assigned tasks and responsibilities, showing the ability to understand new concepts quickly and apply them effectively. He adapted well to the working environment and maintained a cooperative and respectful relationship with team members and supervisors.

His commitment, technical curiosity, and willingness to take initiative made him a valuable contributor during his internship. I am confident that he has the potential to perform well in future academic or professional opportunities and will be an asset wherever he applies his skills.

I strongly recommend Sanish Maharjan for internship and career opportunities. Please feel free to eMail me if further information is required.

With best regards,
